> First publication Oct. 23, 1850. Summons by Publication. The state of Kansas to Philander Mott:

You are hereby notified that you have been sued with John S. Sutherland and Lillias Sutherland, his wife, Arthur Sutherland and Annie Sutherland, his wife, et al as co-defendant, by Katharine E. Rand as executive, plaintiff. ecutrix, plaintiff.

This summons is to require you to answer the petition, filed June 17, 1890, by the said plaintiff, in the clerk's office of the Dickinson county district court, in the state of Kansas, on or before December 2, 1890, or said petition will be taken as true and judgment rendered against you for the fore-closure of a certain montrage executed and closure of a certain mortgage, executed and delivered by the said John S. Sutherland and Not Political.

The greatest horse meeting ever held in the west will be held Oct. 28, 29, 30, 31, at Abilene. All of the great breeding farms of the west are now represented here. Two hundred horses delivered by the said John S. Sutherland and Lillias Sutherland, Arthur Sutherland and Annie Sutherland, June 10, 1886, on the following lands and tenements, situated in said county of Dickinson, and described as follows: Lots sixty-four (64) and sixty-six (66), and the east half of lot sixty-two (62) on Main street, and lots forty-two (42) forty-four (44) and forty-six (46) on Fifth street in Solomon City, to secure the payment of the sum of $750.00 and recorded in the record of mortgages in said county, in vol. 15, at page worth $300,000 can now be seen at the fair grounds. This is certainly an enterprise that benefits every producer in this county. Prepare to go to the Inter-State Breeders' meeting.
